

The Ojai Festivals Women's Committee presents:

The Structure & Functions of Myth

Lecture by Dr. Bill Garlington

June 1st, 2014

2PM

The Woman's Club

414 East Ojai Avenue

Myth and Mystery, our Cultural History

Join us for a lecture on "The Structure and Functions of Myth," drawing on numerous motifs, including Origin and Hero myths while exploring cross-cultural examples from Greek and Hindu myths. The work of Carl Jung and Joseph Campbell will also be emphasized.

You won't want to miss this lecture! Make it a day full of culture out on the town— enjoy lunch in the sun at a local restaurant, listen to Dr. Garlington's lecture, and then catch the Film Society movie at 4:30PM.

Dr. Garlington is well known in Ojai for his classes on cultural history and religion. He is an engaging and enthusiastic speaker, with passions in the study of history, philosophy, and comparative religion. With a BA and MA from UCLA as well as his doctorate from the Australian National University, Dr. Garlington currently teaches adult education classes at Cal State Channel Islands, and serves as the Director of Youth Activities at Camarillo United Methodist Church.
